Duty of Care is the moral and legal obligation of employers to their employees, contractors, volunteers and related family members in maintaining their well-being, security, and safety when working, posted on international assignments, or working in remote areas of their home country.

1. Preparing and informing staff of potential risks.
2. Keeping staff informed while traveling.
3. Getting them home in an urgent situation.
4. Follow up care and support.
5. Review, assess and amend policies, procedures and practices.

Duty of Loyalty is the reciprocal obligation of the employee to actively participate in their own safety.

For more information, visit corporatetraveler.us